Attention: LMSF Committee

The annual Louis Mancuso, Sr. Scholarship, has been established to provide two, one-time awards, of One Thousand Dollars ($1000) each to high school seniors who wish to pursue an aviation career and/or further their flight training. The scholarship is administered by Gail M Mancuso, Executive Director of the Louis Mancuso, Sr. Scholarship Fund.

Students who have a love of aviation and plan to help educate future pilots, may apply for the Louis Mancuso, Sr. Scholarship

(For more information about the scholarship, and a list of award recipients, please visit www.midislandair.com/LMSF).

The applicant must meet the following requirements:

- be a senior, enrolled full-time in a Nassau or Suffolk High School or vocational school
- show proof of high school graduation prior to disbursement of award
- have applied and received acceptance to either a two- or four-year college or university with an aviation program, OR
- be accepted into a Part 61 or Part 141 flight school and be able to meet pilot qualifications as per FAA FAR 61.103.

C) Please attach a resume listing any extracurricular activities, clubs, organizations, volunteer work and part-time employment you have participated in within the past three years.

D) Personal Statement

On a separate, double-spaced, typewritten sheet, in 300 words or fewer, describe why you want to pursue a career in aviation. Include any influences on your decision and what involvement you have had in aviation so far. Please be mindful of your word count as lengthy essays may disqualify your application. Note that while the Scholarship Committee determines the awards based on all of your qualifications, it does put significant weight on the personal statement.
